

U.N. SPORTS YEAR LAUNCH

Swiss-born personalities and their special guests enjoyed a party hosted by Ambassador Alexis Lautenberg to celebrate the launch of the United Nations Year of Sport and Physical Education, which aims to promote tolerance and peace through sport.

A champagne reception held at the capital's Swiss Re Tower, the City landmark better known as The Gherkin, was followed by a four-course gourmet dinner. Guests included Arsenal captain Patrick Vieira, who made an impassioned speech about Diambars, his children's football academy in Senegal.
